

NGA members often recover several times their annual dues investment simply by taking advantage of exclusive members-only discounts. Your return on investment is compounded by the value you receive from our industry-leading training and certification programs, the information available through our member publications, and the first hand knowledge you receive through weekly e-mails.

The NGA and the NGA logo are recognized worldwide as the symbol of professionalism and excellence. This brochure highlights the ways you can get more from your NGA membership. For complete information, visit www.glass.org.
