

2020 Sponsorship Prospectus

The NGA Technical Conference is an intimate venue focused on education where the industry comes together to address the critical issues affecting stakeholders. Open to association members and others active in the glass and glazing industry, more than 100 dedicated professionals will gather at the Renaissance Chicago North Shore in suburban Chicago to address trending issues and discuss industry insights.

The NGA Technical Conference presents a great opportunity for sponsors to connect directly with industry leaders. We've developed these sponsorship packages to help you share your brand and services with attendees.
